October 11, 2017

Special Announcements

2017-2018 Staff Council Members

We are excited to announce your 2017-2018 University Staff Council Representatives.

University Staff Council is composed of staff employees from the Lake Shore, Water Tower and Health Sciences Campuses. Representatives are elected by their staff colleagues to represent the concerns of and act as a voice for their constituents.

Staff Council Events

We have a number of great opportunities coming up throughout the fall semester. We will be offering Lunch & Learns for staff to spend their lunch engaged in a variety of topics. We are also gearing up for our Annual Staff Recognition & Excellence Awards in November—keep an eye out for the call for nominations and more information on that event. Be sure to stay tuned to future newsletters for updated as details become finalized.

Staff Question or Concern?
Contact your University Staff Council and let us know how we can support you.

CONTACT STAFF COUNCIL

University Events

Support National Coming Out Day
Wed, October 11
James Thomas, jthomas39@luc.edu

October 11, 2017 marks the 30th National Coming Out Day. In efforts to celebrate this historic date, SDMA is hosting a "Coming Out Stories" campaign, where LGBTQIA students, staff and faculty can anonymously submit their coming out story to be posted in their office window.

SHARE YOUR STORY

Your University Staff Council 2017-2018

Latonya Allen (LSC); Jennifer Alvarez-Smith (LSC); Melissa Bagdon, Treasurer (LSC); Astrid Beltran (LSC); Jamaica Benas (HSD); Betsi Burns (LSC); Tina Calcagno (HSD); Farrah Ellison-Moore (WTC); Jennifer Fernandes (WTC); Kelsey Gerber, Staff Development (LSC); Yolanda Golden (WTC); Ed Gricius (HSD); Lorelei Hacholski.

Dreamer's Act Letter Writing Campaign
You can support Loyola’s undocumented students by signing letter to your own member of Congress and asking them to pass the Dream Act.

Volunteers are needed to staff the Dream Act table on your respective campus. Click here to find out more about volunteer opportunities.

---

Ignatian Heritage Month Book Club

November 2017

Chris Murphy, cmurphy3@luc.edu

This year's Ignatian Heritage Month Book Club selection is Showdown: Thurgood Marshall and the Supreme Court Nomination that Changed America by Wil Haygood. Haywood tells the moving story of Marshall's life as well as those who shaped the civil rights movement.

The Book Club will meet once each campus in November.

Lunch will be provided!

[CLICK HERE TO RESERVE YOUR SPOT]
News & Updates

Become a Game Day Ambassador!

Brian Day, bday1@luc.edu

The Loyola Athletics Department is seeking enthusiastic individuals to join their Game Day Ambassador team! Game Day Ambassadors will work with the Athletics Department to ensure a great game day experience for Loyola fans.

Game Day Ambassadors will receive 2 season tickets for the 2017-2018, a Loyola Athletics polo and a pregame meal before scheduled shifts.

Did you know...?

The Mundelein Center for Fine and Performing Arts was designed by Nairne Fisher, who was only 28 when he began work on the project. The building was his first major commission. Although the building contains many attributes of the popular Art Deco style, including strong vertical lines and geometric shapes, it most notably features the guardian angels, Uriel & Jophiel, outside the south entrance to the building. Click here to read more about the significance of Uriel & Jophiel.
Didn't receive this newsletter?
University Staff Council Newsletters are currently an opt-in listserv. If you would like to receive these newsletter and updates directly, subscribe below!

SUBSCRIBE TO THE STAFF COUNCIL NEWSLETTERS

University Staff Council
1032 W. Sheridan Rd., Chicago, IL 60660
staffcouncil@luc.edu

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.